THE CLASS OF 1945

OF

CLINTON HIGH SCHOOL

Motto "Nil Sine Numine"

PREFACE

We send our book out into the world with the hope that it may bring the greatest happiness to the greatest number of people. Certainly compiling it has given immeasurable enjoyment to us, the Staff. To please all who peruse this book has been our constant endeavor.

— The Editor

"AMONG OUR SOUVENIRS"

TRIBUTE

To Miss Frances A. Ryan, in appreciation of friendship and loyalty, the Class of 1945 dedicates this volume book.

To Miss Adyan, who has been to us an inspiring teacher and a helpful friend, for enduring patience, constant consideration, and unfailing geniality will long be remembered by the Class of '45.

TRIBUTE TO THE FACULTY

It is most appropriate that we pay tribute to those who have faithfully fulfilled the task of preparing us for future years. Our days at Clinton High are numbered, we will gradually lose contact with those who taught us, but in our hearts we shall never forget them.

It is now, as we leave, that we fully appreciate the constant high standard of living and thinking that they have instilled in us. We assure them that we shall try our best to live by the fine philosophy they imparted to us.

The 1945 graduating class, with the utmost sincereity, wants to thank them for all they have done.

CLASS HISTORY

Freshman

Weren't we, though—green as the grass—for this was a new environment—a little world of its own. Our hearts were filled with mixed emotions: expectancy, anxiety, fear, fun. And weren't the Seniors nice to us, letting us be the first to buy tickets to a dance we never went to, telling us where our rooms were? Funny, isn't it, how their directions always seemed to lead us through every room but the one we wanted?

Everything ran along smoothly until the shock of December 7. Will we ever forget that date? Close on it came another dread date—dreaded, that is, by us . . . Midyears. Somehow or other we managed to struggle through them.

From then on it was easy going; no more studying or red marks on our report cards (or so we thought). We bought our weekly war stamps and attended the Friday night dances with the air that all Freshmen in High School seem to acquire.

So it was that June found us gazing with satisfaction at our hard-earned 40 points. We put on our gowns and tuxedos for our first Prom, proudly realizing that we were now . . . . .

Once more as we went up the old steps of C. H. S. and walked through the familiar halls, we realized that we were actually glad to be back. We gazed at the Freshmen running around with such bewildered looks and wondered if we ever looked like that.

This year three new teachers were appointed to the faculty to replace those who had entered the service. Already the war was coming closer.

It was all very exciting, too, because we were to elect our first class officers, and we wanted to do a good job. After we voted, we started to give our own Friday night dances at Music Hall.

Finally, before we knew it, the year came to a close and we left C. H. S. resolving to do even better when we were . . . . .

Here we are in our Junior year. For the past two years we had been waiting for this year. Now we felt no different than before, because we still had the Seniors to look up to. However, just the thought of being called upper classmen was good enough for us. This was to be a most exciting year.

After we rushed through the Mid-Years, being old hands at it we took them in stride, we ordered our class rings, and wished hopefully that we would get them in a hurry.

Next plans were made for our Junior Prom. Many weary hours were spent in the discussion of decorations, invitations and orchestra. We were sure that this one would be the best ever. Finally the hard work was finished and we hurried home to put on our best for the big night ahead. The Seniors were our guests, the Prom a success and our Junior year passed away.

Enter the class of 1945 as Seniors at last! Our first class meeting was held, and last year's officers were re-elected.

In December we presented our dramatic contribution . . ."The Man Who Came to Dinner" . . . which proved to be a huge success under the able direction of our class adviser, Miss Ryan.

As spring approached, our class was somewhat diminished, due to early departures for college and demands of the local draft board for some of the boys.

Of course, we were all looking forward to graduation. Yet at its approach, there was a feeling of regret as, opening the doors to the future, we look back on those four carefree years of our high school days and somehow wish they could last a little longer.

FRESHMAN INTERCLASS SHOW

Enthusiastic, eager Freshmen were we as we met together to make plans for our debut in the Interclass Dramatics. As we had a variety of talent, our competent director, Mr. Henry O'Toole, advised us to present a radio broadcast. We wholeheartedly set to work and although we dreamed of winning first prize, our main objective was to show the upper classmen what those Freshmen could do.

On April 17, "The Freshman Hour" was presented. The show was made a success by the fine performances of Allan Kelley, Charles Malanson, John Duffy, Morton Madoff, Phyllis Siart, Bernadine Morris, Betty LaPlante, Dolores Baldyga, Ruth Hopfman, Robert Goodmanson and Paul McNally.

Although we did not win first prize, we did win admiration from the other classes, who all agreed that the Freshmen had a promising future.

SENIOR SHOW

Drugged by their huge Thanksgiving repast, the class agreed with their advisor that it would be a worthwhile project to present a former hit of stage and screen for their annual Senior Show . . . "The Man Who Came To Dinner", by Kaufman and Hart.

When the cast was finally assembled our first rehearsal was held in the Town Hall. Amid the echoes of our first chattering teeth, we laughed uproariously at the various characters portrayed. Little did we know that this was the beginning of a long and tedious grind but then success is attained only after hard labor.

Before we could say "Sheridan Whiteside", the long anticipated night arrived. While last minute make-up was being frantically applied by the harassed make-up artists, the curtain rose. Across the footlights on the boards appeared the choice and thus far hidden talent of the Senior Class.

Rita Kehoe as the flustered clubwoman and part-time mother of the erratic camera fiend, Dick Lee, and the coquettish Dot Barlow, and part-time wife of solid citizen, Dave O'Toole, appeared with her brood in a very excitable state of mind. More confusion was added by the visit of two curious clubwomen, very ably portrayed by Elinor Quinn and Madeline Welsh.

These with Genevieve Cipriani as the easily flattered cook and Bill Schmidt as the conscientious butler completed the Stanley household. Leland Hamilton as the doctor from the horse-and-buggy era and Jackie Wilder as the officious nurse were the heralds of Miss Cutler and thence the Great Sheridan Whiteside.

The chic, competent, smartly-dressed amanuensis was vivaciously played by Ruth Hopfman. Known throughout the play as Maggie, Ruthie displayed her dramatic ability to the utmost perfection. Portly Sheridan Whiteside, the bearded cosmopolitan and the literator of the age, made his dramatic entrance in loud attire and still louder voice. Domineering from the start, the part was "lived" by the high school's aristocrat from Lancaster, James O'Neil, Esq.

An aura of mystery was added by the reminiscent Harriet Stanley played by Renie Innamorati who occasionally drifted into the scene.

Romance entered the play with the advent of Bert Jefferson, God's gift to the damsels of Mesalia. Allen Kelley was the perfect choice for the part.

Hot on his heels followed Lorraine Sheldon, the siren of society. The part of the glamour girl was played with facility by Mary Call.

Raymond Lang as Sandy, the labor agitator in pursuit of his INAMORATA, June Stanly, appeared as the unwelcome son-in-law.

A touch of ye merry England was added by the visit of Beverly Carlton, the debonair playwrite. Robert Malcomson took advantage of this opportunity to display his Oxford accent.

Proving the tobacco shortage a fallacy, Richard Duncanson as Banjo, strutted onto the stage smoking and chewing a five-cen-seegar.

The cast was rounded out by Joe Fontana, as Westcott, the radio announcer, and Roy Devaney and Ed Galuska as the expressmen.

Orchids to Miss Ryan, who helped make "The Man Who Came To Dinner" a howling success. Without her whole-hearted efforts our flyer into higher dramatics would have been doomed to failure.

With generous applause still ringing in the ears of the cast, the curtain fell on what was generally agreed to be one of the High School's finest dramatic productions.

SPORTS

FOOTBALL

Starting off the 1945 season, Clinton High spelled the makings of a crack football team, having many returning veterans and a host of new players. However, rival teams also added new strength to their ranks. Coach McCaffrey and Assistant coach Jack Ball had the boys out in August, getting them in shape for the opening game in September.

Seniors on the squad were Capt. Gene Piano, Paul McNally, John Bailey, Bill Connolly, John Coskie, Bob Frietag, Rich Duncanson, John Murphy and Paul Pradario. Joe Zadronzny served as manager, being very capable and handy.

CLINTON 0 GARDNER 13 As usual, Clinton opened the season at Gardner and was finally beaten by 13 to 0. The Green and Gold managed to keep the Chair City boys scoreless till the line gave way near the end of the first half. Clinton threatened many times, but Gardner's line always held. This game showed what Clinton lacked, even though Gardner was favored.

CLINTON 0 NATICK 19 In its second contest, Clinton failed to score against a strong, underrated Natick team. Fumbles and pass interceptions accounted for all Natick's touchdowns. On four different occasions Clinton had opportunities to score, but fumbling and loss on downs prevented this. This was a Mid-State League game. Standouts for Clinton were Cutaldi, Gallagher and McNally.

CLINTON 14 MILFORD 0 The Green and Gold determined to get into the winning column this week at the expense of Milford. They got down to business, and in two quarters trampled over the opposition in true form. Substitutes finished the job. Clinton showed tremendous power in the second quarter when Archie Cataldi and Figi McNally ripped through the Milford line for touchdowns.

CLINTON 0 MARLBORO 19 Fuller Field was again the scene of a massacre, but this time it was our own team who received it. Marlboro, the Midland League and Eastern Mass. champs, toyed with Clinton from start to finish. Capt. Walt Brennan put on one of the finest exhibitions of football we had seen, since the night Clinton upset Marlboro in 1942. The visitors were simply too fast, strong and determined.

CLINTON 14 WEBSTER 0 Bitter from last weeks trimming, Clinton traveled to Webster and picked up their second victory in the pouring rain. Capt. Gene Piano had most of the scoring luck by making two touchdowns. The Clinton linemen stood out both offensively and defensively.

CLINTON 6 LEOMINSTER 12 The impossible was almost accomplished at Doyle Field this year. Only for an intercepted pass in the second quarter and Clinton might have walked off with the game. In this game Leominster received the scaring of their life. Umpire Rex Kidd and Leominster are still disputing over our touchdown. This was considered a moral victory for Clinton.

CLINTON 2 ST. BERNARD'S 0 Back at Fuller Field, Clinton barely nosed out St. Bernard's by two points. Over confident by last weeks near victory caused this. Neither team could score till the last period when Bill Connolly, Clinton's star center, with seconds to play blocked a punt, which landed behind the visitors' goal.

CLINTON 0 HUDSON 0 This game was one of the best games of the year as far as football is concerned. This was predicted before the game even began. Each team claimed it would win. It was played under the lights at Riverside Park, before a crowd that overflowed the park. Clinton came within 3 yards of a touchdown. Everyone will remember the battle cry, 'Give the ball to Bino'. The game was loaded with thrills and excitement, however, both teams had to settle for a tie.

CLINTON 12 FITCHBURG 13 Outplayed for two periods by the tricky 'T', Clinton turned on the power to match Fitchburg's two touchdowns, but were short by one point. Paul McNally made a beautiful 70 yard score down the side lines. Standouts for Clinton were McNamara, McNally, Bailey and Coskie.

CLINTON 18 MAYNARD 0 As in passed years, Clinton ended the season by traveling to Maynard for the annual Thanksgiving classic. The Green and Gold really sparkled this day, and in the last quarter the game ended in a free for all. Everybody and his grandmother took part, holding the game up for fifteen minutes. Clinton scores were made by Bailey, Cataldi and Capt. Piano. Everyone who attended will long remember this game.

To end up this exciting season, the Lions Club feted the team to a banquet at the Old Timers. Henry Lamar, coach of Harvard University, was guest speaker. Tom Dunn, National League umpire, also spoke.

BASEBALL

The scent of spring is in the air and that means the beginning of a new year, and a new baseball team. Good weather and dry grounds in early April permitted Coach McCaffrey to call spring practice at Savage Field.

Although many lettermen returned, a deep gash was left in the hitting and pitching department. This, however, doesn't stop Clinton from having a fine ball club. One of the largest schedules in years proved that Clinton could carry on. A total of fourteen games will be played this year.

Returning veterans are Capt. Bob Frietag in his position behind the plate; Tom Fallon, slugging lefty and A-1 fielder and only a sophomore; Archie Cataldi, famed Acre star at third base; Joe Prindle, top notch fielder and heavy hitter; Bill Gosselin, an outstanding pitcher; Tom Shaugnessy, back at second base; and Ed Nicewicz, relief pitcher and all around player.

New players on the squad are John Bailey, Joe Fontana, Joe Angelini, Jim McLaughlin, Pat Vitone, Dan Driscoll, Bob Donohue, Jim Morin and Paul McNally.

THE SCHEDULE

April 28 — MILFORD at CLINTON
May 2 — HUDSON at CLINTON
May 5 — MARLBORO at MARLBORO
May 7 — GARDNER at CLINTON
May 9 — LEOMINSTER at CLINTON
May 11 — HUDSON at HUDSON
May 16 — MARLBORO at CLINTON
May 19 — MAYNARD at MAYNARD
May 21 — GARDNER at GARDNER
May 23 — FITCHBURG at CLINTON
May 26 — MAYNARD at CLINTON
May 28 — MILFORD at MILFORD
June 2 — FITCHBURG at FITCHBURG
June 6 — LEOMINSTER at LEOMINSTER

BASKETBALL

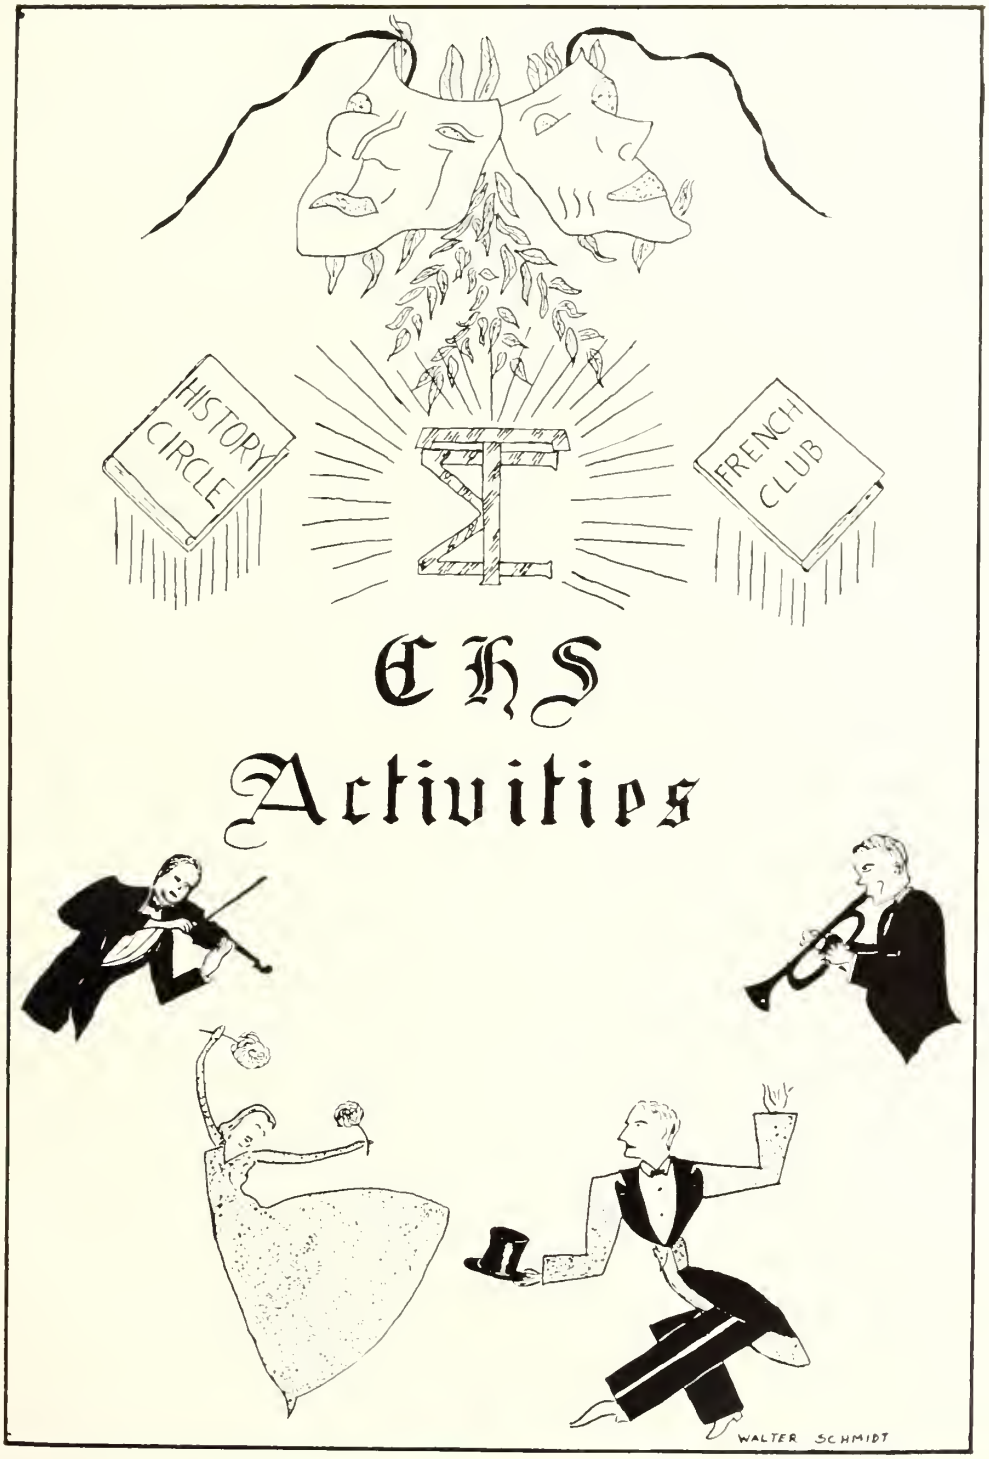
After a lapse of two years, on account of wartime restrictions on traveling, basketball was again resumed at Clinton High. Only three games were played, due to uncertainty of securing a basketball court and traveling conditions. However, they were packed with unlimited thrills, large crowds, and everyone was happy to see a Clinton High School basketball team.

CLINTON 25 FITCHBURG 54 It was the first game in over two years for the Green and Gold against a team slated for state champs, which explains the score. Clinton started off in fine fore, but couldn't keep it up due to lack of reserve material and inexperience.

CLINTON 31 MARLBORO 26 At the Armory, before a large crowd of fans, Clinton managed to wipe a more experienced Marlboro team. The visitors led only at the end of the first period. After that, Clinton took the lead by a slim margin and widened it to five points before the final whistle. The Green and Gold attack was led by Jimmy McLaughlin, William Hildebrandt and Ray Lang.

CLINTON 26 MARLBORO 24 Not satisfied with their defeat a week before, Marlboro again challenged the renowned Green and Gold at the Marlboro High gym. They met with the same fate as the first game. However, this game was more thrilling than the first. Clinton led till the last period, when the Black and Orange tied the score with only seconds left to play. In the three minute overtime, Paul McNally, Clinton's top scorer, saved the day for Clinton on a long accurate shot to win the game.

Seniors on the squad were Paul McNally, Ray Lang, Bob Frietag and Joe Angelini.



HISTORY CIRCLE

In early April the 1945 year of the History Circle was organized under the supervision of Mr. Henry M. O'Toole. The officers elected for the Circle Dave O'Toole, President and Emil Novak, Secretary-Treasurer.

Meetings were held every Wednesday night at Union Hall. Mr. O'Toole gave us talks on government, and provided many interesting speakers on that subject. Socials and dances were held after the meetings.

The annual trip to Provincetown is still questionable. We are hoping and praying that it will take place. Gasoline, tires and transportation are still scarce. Mr. O'Toole is doing his best about the matter, and whether or not we go, the History Circle of '45 will have a successful year.

TAU SIGMA

The 1945 Chapter of the Tau Sigma got under way in early April. Meetings were held every Tuesday night, and at our first meeting ballots were cast, electing William Connolly as President and John Coskie as Secretary-Treasurer.

Mr. Gordon organized Tau Sigma some years back, for the express purpose of teaching the Senior boys, who were now entering a new phase of life, social manners, problems on life, and other information, which will be helpful to them. To him, we wish to express our utmost thanks.

The annual dinner-dance will be held at the Sterling Inn, and the 1945 year of Tau Sigma will be completed.

FRENCH CIRCLE

President	Joseph Angelini	Treasurer	Edward Galuska
Vice-President	Genevieve Cipriani	Secretary	Ruth Hopfman

Each year in Room 8, a group of foreign minded students get together to form that organization called the French Club. French IV aristocrats held the upper hand in the club, because of superior knowledge over the lowly French III peasants.

As in the past, Miss Mary Kerrigan served as director, and we are very grateful to her for her help and guidance.

The initiation of the Seniors taking French III was the highlight of the club. Conga lines on High Street, barber shop quartets, a visit to jail, and a so-called shower bath helped make good Frenchmen of them.

We will long remember Miss Kerrigan for kind heart and enduring patience during our membership in Le Cercle Francais.

ORCHESTRA

When the Freshmen hear strange sounds coming from the Portable, we know the Orchestra is getting under way.

Each year a group of talented musicians get together to form our own Clinton High School Orchestra, who voluntarily come forth to play at graduation.

Seniors in the orchestra are: E. Allen Kelley, Morton Madoff, Leland Hamilton, William Schmidt, Robert Malcomson, Edward Galuska, Joe Fontana, John Andrews, John Alzipeidi, Carmine Paulino and Anne McRell.

The Orchestra has made marked progress under the guidance of our efficient and enthusiastic director, Miss Elinor M. Driscoll, whom the Class of '45 can only say "Thank You".

JUNIOR PROM

It was finally here- -our Junior Prom! We had been planning for this great event for weeks, and chose our committees for the orchestra, decorations, tickets and receptions.

Bright and early the morning of the Prom we were at the Town Hall all ready to get started. "Carnival" was to be the theme; but for a while it didn't look like much of anything.

We had the usual problems: the decorations just wouldn't stick to the walls, and the streamers insisted on obeying the law of gravity. We ran out of crepe paper and paste. At this rate it would never be ready by 8 that night!

But by noon the whole hall had been decorated. It looked so gay with the big black masks, bright compacts, top hats, dance programs, giant red tubes of lipstick, and ballons all over the walls and the multi-colored streamers that hung from the balcony.

That night we were all in heaven, dancing to Eddie Hamilton's music. Later on, Mr. Gordon led the Grand March in which everyone took part. General dancing was again resumed, and all agreed that our Prom had been most successful.

CLASSROOM HUMOR

Mr. Cobb: "You can't sleep in my class."
Densmore: "If you didn't talk so loud, I could."

Mr. McSherry: "What is nitrate of sodium?"
Ruth Harner: "Half the day rate, I suppose."

Mr. Sheridan: "What are the names of the bones in your hand?"
Jim O'Neil: "Dice."

Miss McIntyre: "Why are you late?"
Ray Lang: "Class started before I got here."

Mr. Gordon: "Take this sentence, 'Bring the cow into the pasture'. What mood?"
Rita Kehoe: "The cow."

Mr. McSherry: "What is the most outstanding product chemistry has given to the world?"
Hamilton: "Blondes."

Miss Kerrigan: "Did the Senior Show have a happy ending?"
Duncanson: "Sure, everybody was glad it was over."

Mr. Gordon: "What is wrong with this sentence: 'The horse and cow is in the pasture?'"
McNally: "Because one ought always to put the lady first."

Mr. O'Toole: "Why are the medieval centuries called the "Dark Ages"?"
Ruth Hopfman: "Because it was knight time."

Mr. Gibbons: "What do you find the hardest thing to deal with?"
Ray Gates: "An old pack of cards."

Mr. Gordon: "Did you write this poem yourself?"
Bob Frietag: "Every line of it."
Mr. Gordon: "Then I'm glad to meet you, Edgar Allen Poe, I thought you were dead long ago."

Taxi Driver: "I thought that I heard somebody tell me to stop."
Connolly: "Drive on; she wasn't talking to you."

"A collision is when two things come together unexpectedly. Can you give us an example of a collision?"
Madoff: "Yes'm, twins."

Miss McIntyre: "What do you know about Spanish Syntax?"
J. Murphy: "Gosh, I didn't know they had to pay for their fun."

"It's a sure sign of summer when a Scotchman throws his Christmas tree away."

CLASSROOM HUMOR

D. O Toole: "I suppose all geniuses are conceited."
E. A. Kelley: "Some of them — but I'm not."

C. Kramer: "Does your watch tell the time?"
G. Oehmer: "No, you have to look at it."

The Gay Nineties — a gige and a gal.
The Roarin' Twenties — a fliver and a flapper.
The Dizzy Forties — a plane and a jane

Miss Ryan: "Why is your arithmetic so rusty?"
J. Wilder: "I must have left my adding machine out in the rain."

Alas for Little Willie
We'll ne'er see him no more;
For what he thought was H2 O
Was H2 SO4

E. Frank Spencer: "Fishing?"
Billy Schmidt: "No, drowning worms."

F. McMullen: "How do you feel after a ride on that horse?"
D. McElligott: "Gosh! I never thought that anything stuffed with hay could be so hard as that."

Dot Barlow: "Was I driving too fast?"
Al Moran: "Heck, no. You were flying too low."

A Nut is at the wheel,
A Peach is at his right,
A turn in the road —
Fruit Salad tonight!

Proud Father: "Well, son, now that you're a grad, what are you going to do?"
Offspring of '45: "I'm going to talk to you about the good old days."

And then there was the co-ed who was so dumb she thought hardening of the arties was a highway project.

Mr. J. Gibbons: "Give me an example of indirect taxation."
E. Novak: "The dog tax."
Mr. J. Gibbons: "How is that?"
E. Novak: "The dog doesn't have to pay it."

Mr. McNamara: "Give me three collective nouns."
E. Gicka: "Flypaper, wastebasket and vacuum cleaner."

"If these jokes are hard and stale,
Please don't make a fuss,
For they belong to the jokesters,
And only borrowed by us."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the honorable class of 1945, being of strong body and weak mind, and knowing that all good things must come to an end, take pen in hand and draw up our final bequest for succeeding classes at Clinton High School.

John Alzapiedi and John Andrews leave with the Larkin Hillbillies.

Lena Ambrosi and Ethel Gioka leave with the Acre gang.

Joe Angelini leaves his curly hair to Kevin O'Toole.

John Bailey leaves "Kiver" to carry on.

Dolores Baldyga leaves — the Golden Voice of 1945.

Dot Barlow leaves to be photographed for school-girl complexion ads.

Laurent Benoit leaves in his snazzy garbadine suit — yum yum.

Anastacia Bertzos leaves to join the ranks of Cadet Nurses.

Peggy Brown leaves quietly but not unnoticed.

Madeline Calabrese leaves her array of shorthand pins.

Gen Cipriani leaves her 95%'s and above to Mary Davitt.

Bill Connolly leaves still raving about the Marines.

Selma Cooperman and Vivian Lavine leave hand-in-hand.

John Coskie leaves his wide-awake appearance (?) and brisk manner (?) to Tubby Elia.

Frances Czarnecki leaves her curly hair to some lucky junior.

George Densmore leaves his manly beauty to Sonny Grady.

Roy Devaney leaves the girls alone — much to their sorrow.

Paul Domenico leaves his boy scout pants to Jackie Hastings — may they wear well.

Madeline Donnelly leaves to find a "cookie".

Joe Donnini leaves to play a little baseball.

Constance Dorazio leaves with a smile to everyone.

June Dorazio leaves without a single sound.

Eleanor Driscoll leaves her chemistry book a little worn.

Johnnie Droogan leaves his right-hand man, Archie, behind.

Richie Duncanson leaves — following one of the fairer sex, of course.

Theresa Fitzgerald leaves Miss Gannon a package of chewing gum.

Joe Fontana leaves — oh, Frankie!

Ottsie Frietag leaves his height to anyone who can reach it.

Gus Galuska abdicates his position as tobacco king in favor of Vincent Lipka.

Ronald Garceau leaves a slap on the back to all seniors.

Ray Gates leaves "skipping periods" to Bill McNamara.

Elisa Giovannangelo leaves, proving good things come in small packages.

John Gemma leaves for the laundry.

Mary Grady leaves in her Plymouth.

Leland Hamilton leaves his super human physical prowess to Stan Bryant.

Babsy Haner leaves to wait for a V-Mail letter.

Pearl Harioan leaves her good nature to anyone who needs it.

Walter Heinold leaves his peaches and cream complexion to John O'Malley.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT (continued)

Ruth Hopfman leaves her collection of odd-shaped, colored glasses to anyone who dares.
Rene Innamarati leaves for the basketball games at Turner Hall.
Kenny Janda leaves — he was never here anyway.
Warren Jermain leaves — and not with a Scotch smile.
Elinor Jewett leaves, still talking.
Rita Kehoe leaves to get a tan in Florida.
Alice Kelley leaves — still smiling.
Allen Kelley leaves in his flivver.
Elliot Krackhardt leaves the halls echoing "One Meatball".
Charlotte Kraemer leaves her cute ways to Barbara Dippold.
Ray Lang turns Room 1 back to Miss McIntyre.
Mary LaPlante leaves her dancing feet to Connie Duggan.
Richard Lee leaves with his mouse-trap — good hunting, Dick.
Mort Madoff leaves us "Stompin at the Savoy".
Bob Malcomson leaves Miss Driscoll in need of a pair of sun glasses.
Rose Marcik leaves to become someone's "Stenog."
Walter Marhefka leaves with his Charles Atlas build — woof, woof.
Ann Maroney leaves for the horse shows.
Gloria Masciarelli leaves to become an "Angel of Mercy".
Bibsy McCann leaves her "not over 50" sticker to Reg. Bates.
Betty McCarty leaves her collection of tardy slips to Ellen Tierney.
Dorothy McElligott leaves her giggles echoing in the corridors.
Ray McGown left Babsy writing letters.
Eleanor McGovern leaves her sister to ride home on the bus alone.
Frances McMullen leaves for a horseback ride.
Fiji McNally leaves the football team minus a taxi.
James McNamara leaves to earn a pair of silver wings.
Phyllis McNamara and Vyrlin Wells leave together — our two sophisticated ladies.
Anne McRell leaves with the Sea Scouts.
Mary Moore leaves a certain someone still guessing.
Helen Moran leaves her twinkling Irish eyes to Bibbers McNally.
Bernie Morris leaves the freshmen open-mouthed.
John Murphy leaves a big hole in the football line.
Catherine Mortimer leaves just as quietly as she entered.
Theresa Murphy leaves her dimples to Marion Mitchell.
Emil Novak leaves — answering the call of the wild.
Gladys Oehmer leaves her graceful stride to Beverly Spencer.
Elinor Quinn leaves for "down under".
Janice O'Malley leaves for the post office with a letter to guess who.
Jimmy O'Neil leaves his campaign buttons to the nearest Democrat.
Dave O'Toole leaves Mr. Dyer minus a very competent movie director.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT (continued)

Alyce Papacolas leaves her bangs to Jackie Frietag.
Carmine Paulino leaves with his "squeeze box" under his arm.
Gene Piano leaves an unhappy coach with a hard place to fill.
Pauline Poissant leaves with her earrings on; we know she can't lose them.
Eugene Popielarczyk leaves for Holy Cross and a very promising career.
Bob O'Malley left to spend the winter in Florida at the President's request.
Barbara Popp leaves the secret of her flaming tresses to Betty Spencer.
Paul Praderio leaves his sister, Natalie, to the future classes of Clinton High.
Joe Prendergast leaves with a "boogie beat".
Argeo Regonini leaves the junior girl (s) sighing.
Paula Salmen leaves with her collection of testies.
Bill Schmidt leaves hoping no one will find out about the hall door.
Betty Seymour leaves her feather bob to Rosalie Mortimer.
Sue Shapasian leaves her long black hair to Mary Toner.
Phyllis Siart left in March for the preacher's.
Frank Spencer leaves the Sea Scouts and Boy Scouts for the real thing.
Doris Ulrich leaves for the "woods".
Muriel Whitcomb leaves, oh, so quietly.
Jackie Wilder leaves her pep to Raye Stuka.
Thelma Woodman leaves minus her right-hand gal, Phyllis.
John Zadrozny left early for the Navy.

CLASS SONG

Music — Composed
Words — Wallace Schmidt

Glory to those who their duty saw,
Honor those men in the strife of war.
We come with faith for the Lamp of Peace
With vigor of youth and fire of hope
That malice shall cease.

Yours is the torch to bear as we onward go,
You need courage to spare, as you grasp it so
Here in our steps carry on, keep our flame alight,
And ever be true, brave spirit renew,
All Evil to fight.

Ours is the task of the future world,
Constant our faith as a flag unfurled.
We keep our luck as we firmly stand,
With reverence to God with trust in ourselves
To build peace for men.

FAREWELL

TO

CLINTON HIGH SCHOOL

The hardest task of closing our career as high-school students is when we have to say farewell. As the Class of 1945 passes through the portals of Clinton High School, we wonder what fate the future holds for us. To some of us this has been a year of joy and happiness, but to most of us it has been a year of sorrow and grief.

The end of the War in Europe, General MacArthur's return to the Philippines, Tokyo being bombed daily by our B-29's, and other events have made the year 1945 famous.

However, the greatest casualty of this year was the passing of our beloved Commander-in-Chief, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, whose untiring efforts made possible, perhaps, this graduation for the Class of 1945.

But, fear not, as ye say farewell, for it is not the end, but only the beginning of our future. No matter where we go, or what we do, Clinton High School will always find a place in our hearts.

In the following pages will be found the names of those who made this class book possible—

THE ADVERTISERS.

It is not merely a business proposition to these men.

They are men who believe in

CLINTON HIGH IDEALS.

They are men who admire and respect

the young men and women of Clinton High School

Let us not fail them.

Time after time we have asked for their aid—

and every time

they have come through 100%!

These men—some of whom have never had the privilege or opportunity to know as students the fellowship and spirit of C. H. S.—these men have been willing to aid us throughout the years at Clinton High School.

READ THEIR ADS.

Patronize these merchants.

Show them that their faith in C. H. S. has not been in vain!

Show them that the Class of '45 will carry on the tradition of fair play in good C. H. S.

Let us help these men who believe in helping us!

AN ANNOUNCEMENT by the

WORCESTER SCHOOL OF BUSINESS SCIENCE

In conformance with its policy of presenting a complete, well balanced, individualized training program, the Worcester School of Business Science has recently completed arrangements with Grace Eden and John Robert Powers, creator of the famed Powers Girls. Mr. Powers and Miss Eden will give a special and individual course for each student of the Worcester School of Business Science.

This course covers self-improvement in appearance, poise and personality. In association with Grace Eden, Powers Course Director, who will personally meet and prescribe for each student, this famed Powers Course personality development program will be an exclusive feature of Worcester School of Business Science training.
